ABOUT US

CFC Consult Ltd are extremely proud to be an independent agency which gives us the flexibility to completely tailor the right recruitment solution that meets the demands of your business.

Based in Aldershot we have built up many years of valuable relationships with candidates and it is our mission to find you the very best match for your business and we consider employees an important asset and fully understand that finding the right recruitment partner is an important first step.

A DEDICATED SERVICE FROM START TO FINISH

As a client of CFC you will only receive candidates who have first been personally screened by our experienced consultants; in order to assess their aptitude, suitability and personal qualities.

The candidates put forward for your vacancies will have had their references from previous employers validated beforehand.

You will typically receive a visit from us in person so that we may achieve a comprehensive knowledge and understanding of your individual business and culture, ensuring that all potential applicants have a sound understanding of the job expectations and set objectives.

CANDIDATES

We at CFC Consult understand that looking for a new career can be a challenging time and sometimes even daunting. Our aim is to keep the process as simple as possible for you.

By removing the endless sifting through job adverts, sending your CV to companies and then waiting for feedback CFC will take the stress away and do all of the hard work for you.

All you will need to do is prepare for that important interview.

CFC specialise in placing permanent, temporary and contract staff across Southern England

GOING THE EXTRA MILE

With access to the latest searching techniques along with our leading industry software we often uncover the hidden gems in the marketplace.

By investing our time and expertise we carefully produce a selection of quality talent saving you time and money. We act as the intermediary and manage the entire process for you.

CFC Consult Ltd thoroughly interview all our candidates where we ask detailed, relevant questions around their skill set and we take time to really understand their aspirations.

Once we are satisfied they are an excellent match for your role we will then submit their CV for review, we will also take care of arranging interviews and obtaining feedback. We are able to offer interviewing facilities enabling you to meet with candidates privately and away from site.

CFC Consult Ltd also offers support and guidance with writing a concise, effective job description.

OUR RELATIONSHIP

Ultimately, you will be part of a close working relationship aimed at building a constructive and lasting partnership, and are therefore in receipt of a continually tailored and effective recruitment service
